Postmaster General.
Each proposal must be sterned by the Individual.

and estimated quantity of each article, will be furnished on application to the First Assistant Postmaster General.

Each proposal must be signed by the individual or firm making it, and be accompanied by a guarantee, certified to be responsible and sufficient by the postmaster or United States actorney where the bidder resides, that the bidder shall, within ten days after being called upon to do so, execute a contract to furnish promptly, and in quantities as ordered, the article or articles awarded to him; to be accompanied by a bond, with approved security, in a penality of not less than twice the contract price of all the articles to be furnished by said bidder, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the same.

Proposals unaccompanied by such guarantee will not be considered.

The bids will be considered and accepted or rejected, item by item, or by classes of items, as the Postmaster General may elect.

The articles delivered must be according to proposals, genuine in manufacture and quality, and be furnished at the contract price, whether more or less than the quantity estimated in the form of proposals, and must be delivered iree of charge to this Department for delivery.

The delivery shall be made to the person designated by the Postmaster General to receive the articles, which shall be subject to examination and inspection by an expert detailed for that purpose. The failure to deliver in a reasonable time, say two weeks at furthest, or the delivery of an article deficient in quality or quantity, will be held sufficient cause to annul the contract, at the discretion of the Postmaster General.

The Postmaster General will, in all cases, decide whether the articles tendered by the contractor are of the kind and quality required by ractor are of the kind and quality required by he contract.
